ABOUT THE MUSIC PROGRAM AT CENTRALIA COLLEGE

Centralia College offers an Associate's Degree in Music. This two-year degree transfers directly to any four-year institution within the state of Washington. Scholarships are available for qualified students. In addition, CC music courses can be used to meet core requirements in other degree programs. For information, contact Beth May via email (beth.may@centralia.edu) or telephone (360-623-8487) or follow the Music department on Facebook (<https://www.facebook.com/musicatcentralia/>).

COME PLAY WITH US

Musicians and singers have a great opportunity to perform with Centralia College's music program by stepping on stage with the college choir, the jazz ensemble, chamber orchestra, or the community band each quarter. Groups are open to all community members and joining is easy and inexpensive. To find out more and sign up, visit www.campusce.net/centralia. If you'd like to earn college credit, register for the ensembles as a music class; visit www.centralia.edu for details. New class sessions start every quarter.
